

Student Aid Deadline March 15 – Help Session Info

The Student Aid application period for current LCSS parents is open! Sunday, March 15, 2020 is the deadline to submit the Student Aid application for current LCSS families (a $50 late fee will be added to those applications submitted after this date). Supporting documents, 2020 taxes, etc., are due no later than April 12, 2020.

Once again, FACTS will be the Student Aid processing company. Click here to sign into your account and access the online application.

STUDENT AID FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION #1

Who should complete this Student Aid Application?

ALL families who are applying for the Indiana School Choice Scholarship (voucher), the SGO Grant, or LCSS Tuition Assistance should complete one application per family. All income for all persons in the household should be reported, including income not appearing on one's taxes. In divorce situations where the parents have joint custody of the children, the parent whom the child(ren) resides with 51% of the time should submit the application for Student Aid.
